

In 1938 & 39 They went through the eight rooms on west side of house and made into a museum - each room was full clear to the ceiling - only a path through each room. It opened to the public on Aug. 6 - 1939. There ~~was~~ ^{was} a lot ~~of~~ ^{of} people came with paper ^{Sunday} under ^{their} arms. I was helping to take people through.

The grand children use to go out every time they could. They loved it out there. When we moved in the yard was very high grass - ^{+ bushes needed trimming.} father had a job to clean it up, like it is today. Where the tent was, it was a big veg. garden every year put in by my father.

I got married in 1941 and left until 1943 - then came back with baby daughter, while husband was in service & overseas.
